

THE NOTEBOOK
OF BIRDS

The Notebook of Birds

by Carrie Fernandez and WriteBonnieRose

Created and published by arrangement with Thames & Hudson Ltd, London,
Based on The Big Book of Birds © 2019 Yuval Zommer

The Notebook of Birds first published in the USA in 2021 by Daily Skill Building,
Saint Johns | © 2021 Daily Skill Building

Cover Design by Richele McFarlin, Pretty Perfect Printables; original illustrations
© 2019 Yuval Zommer

All rights reserved. No part of this work may be reproduced or distributed in any form by any means—graphic, electronic, or mechanical, including photocopying, recording, taping, or storing in information storage or retrieval systems—without the prior written permission from the publisher.

Original purchaser is granted permission to print copies for use within his or her immediate family only. For co-op licenses, please email support@dailyskillbuilding.com.

The Big Book Series, by Yuval Zommer

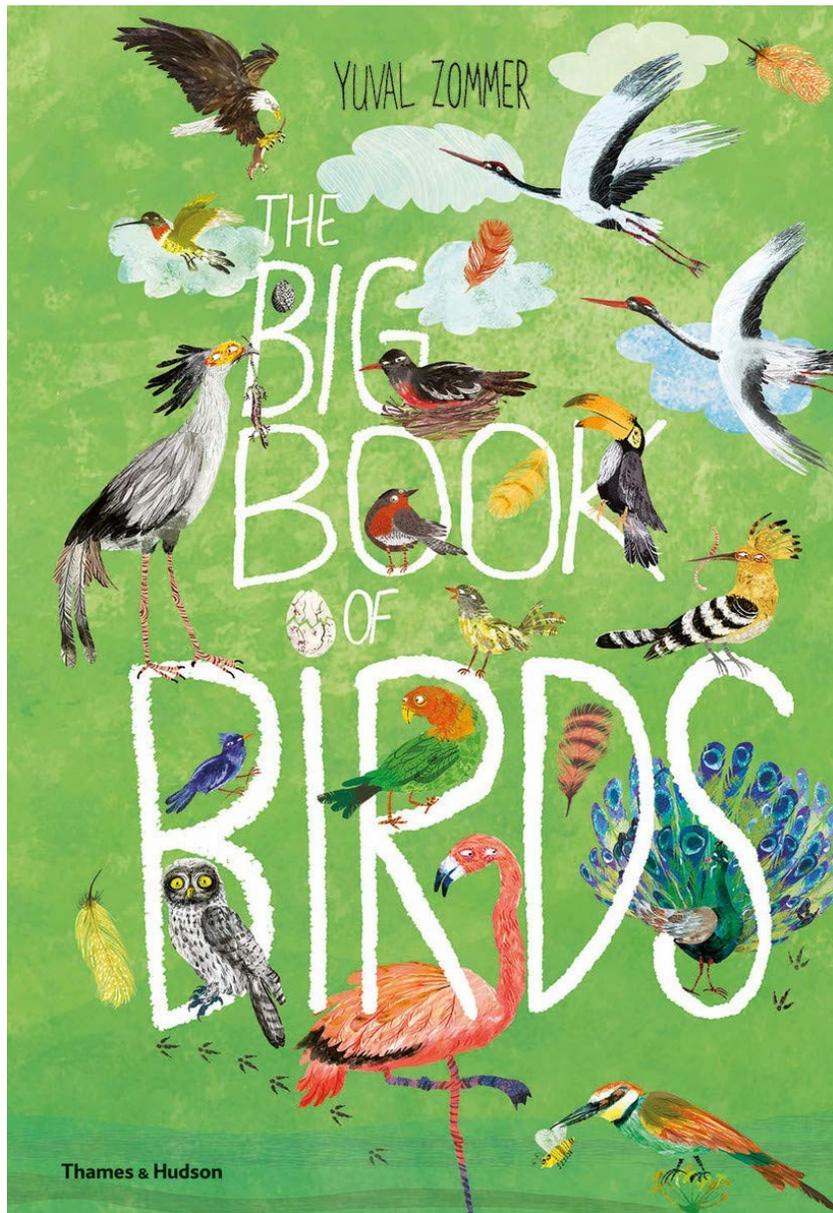

Daily Skill Building is not affiliated with T&H. The Big Book Notebook Companions were created with T&H's permission.

Visit Thames & Hudson Ltd. to learn more about this series:

<https://www.thamesandhudsonusa.com/series/the-big-book-series>

Required Book: The Big Book of Birds, Yuval Zommer

The Big Book of Birds draws in children and parents alike with captivating information about and charming illustrations of hummingbirds, peacocks, flamingos, bald eagles, secretary birds, puffins, red-crowned cranes, and more. The book also invites young bird-watchers to protect birds where they live and make their gardens bird-friendly. The text is chatty, funny, and full of remarkable facts. Read more.

Introduction

You probably know a lot about birds already just by looking out your window or maybe going on a walk. This is your chance to learn tons more about these beautiful animals that often fill our days with their music. Since lots of families enjoy studying birds in their homeschool lessons, we're excited that Thames & Hudson Ltd has given us permission to offer you The Notebook of Birds.

The Notebook of Birds is designed to be a self-paced notebooking journal that gives you a chance to record the fascinating facts you learn so you can look at them at any time. As you read through The Big Book of Birds, have The Notebook of Birds handy so you can follow along. You'll have the chance to draw, sketch, label, and much more as you work through both books together!

Bird Family Tree

Read pages 6-7 of The Big Book of Birds and answer the questions with what you learned.

How many different types of birds are there? _____

What does their family group depend on? _____

What 7 family groups are named?

1. _____ 5. _____

2. _____ 6. _____

3. _____ 7. _____

4. _____

Write the facts you learned about each family group.

Birds of Prey
Types of Birds	Fun Facts

I'm a Bird-Watcher & Feathers and Flying

Read pages 8-11 of The Big Book of Birds and answer the questions with what you learned.

Why does a bird have feathers? _____

What are feathers made from? _____

What else is made from this material? _____

How many feathers might a swan have? _____

How many feathers might a hummingbird have? _____

What characteristics of a feather help birds recognize each other? _____

How do many male birds use their feathers? _____

What bird has extra-long and flowing feathers? _____

What do ducks do to keep their feathers waterproof? _____

Illustrate some of the bird feathers shown.

